

Cinclo: It is a white cord (or liturgical colors). It is worn like a belt over the alb and means that he serves God and is tied to Jesus in purity.

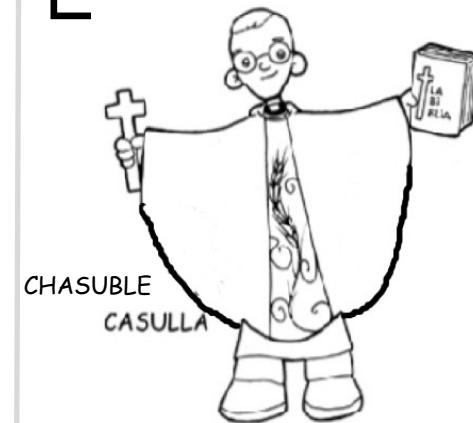

Cincture: It is a thin strip of cloth that is placed around the neck on the priest's alb. It is of different colors according to the liturgical time. It signifies that the power that Jesus gave to the apostles is passed on to the priests to do the same such as reconciliation.

Estola: Es una tela delgada de género que se coloca alrededor del cuello sobre el alba. Es de diversos colores según el tiempo litúrgico que corresponda.

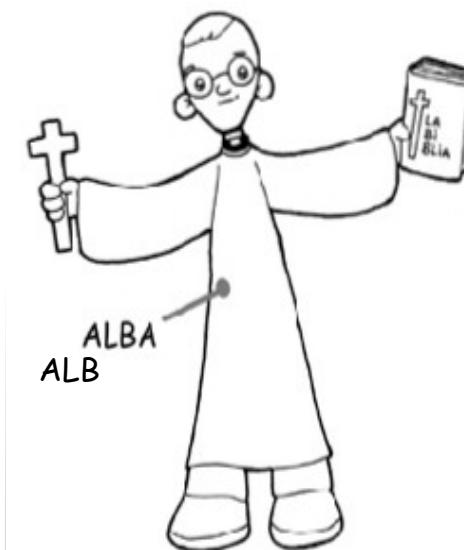

Stole: A stole is a thin strip of cloth that is placed around the neck on the priest's alb. It is of different colors according to the liturgical time. It signifies that the power that Jesus gave to the apostles is passed on to the priests to do the same such as reconciliation.

The Priest's Vestments Las Vestimentas del Sacerdote

Chasuble: It is a mantle in the form of a poncho that covers the priest every time he celebrates the Mass. The chasuble is symbolic of Christ. The priest is dressed in Christ to celebrate the Eucharistic sacrifice. There are also several colors of chasuble as of the stole.

Casulla: Es un manto en forma de poncho que cubre al sacerdote cada vez que celebra la misa. La casulla simboliza a Cristo. El sacerdote se viste de Cristo para realizar lo mismo que el hizo en la última. También hay varios colores de casulla como la estola.

Alb: It is a white robe (similar to Baptism) that covers the entire body to the feet. It is used by the priest in liturgical celebrations and other times he helps. It symbolizes service to God in all things done at the altar.

Alba: Es una tunica blanca (similar al bautismo) que cubre todo el cuerpo hasta los pies. La usa el sacerdote en todas las celebraciones litúrgicas y muchas veces la utilizan también los que ayudan. Con ella se simboliza que se está al servicio de Dios en las cosas del altar.

que se le hace. (Reconciliación) que dñe sirve a Dios esta atadura que se suelta a manera de cinturón sobre el alba y significa a Jesús en pureza.
